

What was this used for?

How old is this?

Looking for answers?

Our museum staff are ready to:

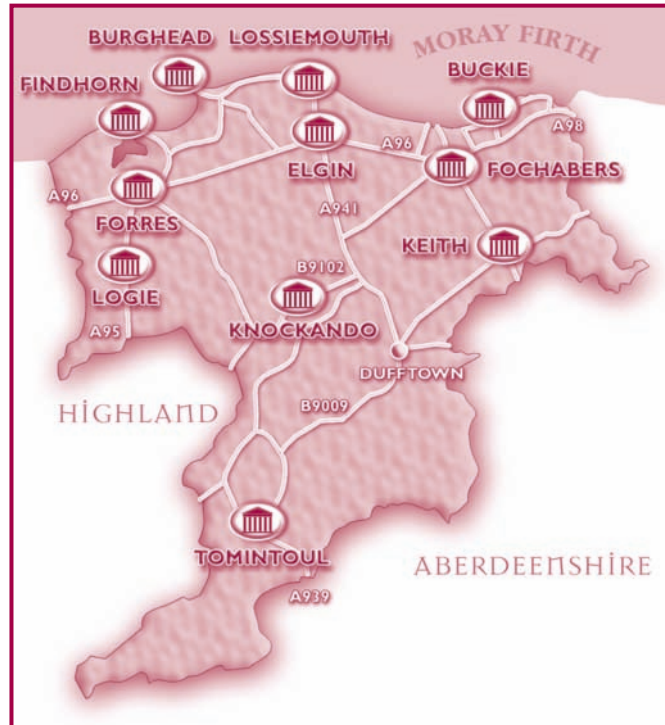

- provide historical information about Moray
- help you find out about your treasured possessions

Our sales points offer a range of quality gifts and souvenirs, as well as copies of old photographs. Please ask about our Enquiry Service if you would like us to carry out research on your behalf.

Access for users with disabilities.

We have made significant changes to our museums to improve access for all visitors.

Please ask if you require any assistance.

Please note that Moray's museums are operated by a number of different organisations. Some open seasonally and some have admission charges

Want to know more?

Please contact us for more information about any of the museums and heritage organisations:

The Falconer Museum
Tolbooth Street, Forres, Moray IV36 1PH
Telephone: 01309 673701
Email: museums@moray.gov.uk
Website: www.moray.gov.uk

PRODUCED BY THE MORAY COUNCIL / DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

DESIGNED BY THE MORAY COUNCIL ICT GRAPHICS SERVICE ©2005

0551

Your HERITAGE DAY OUT
in Moray starts
HERE!

A GUIDE TO MUSEUMS AND HERITAGE ORGANISATIONS
IN MORAY

the MORAY council

Museums of Moray

Our museums offer activities for all the family ~

- places to visit, and things to see and do
 - the ideal day out at weekends, days off and for holidays
 - have fun and find out about the past

Tomintoul Museum

The Square, TOMINTOUL

Superb opportunities to capture the imagination of adults and children.

- old household objects
- photographs of streets and people
- sit at the farmhouse kitchen table
- experience the smell of the blacksmith's workshop
- hear the sound of the bellows

Induction loop, sound commentaries

Wheelchair access

Coach drop-point in Village Square

The Nelson Tower

Cluny Hill, Grant Park, FORRES

Celebrate Trafalgar!

Visit the first built monument to Lord Nelson, with stunning views over Forres and Findhorn Bay.

The Nelson snuff box can be seen in the Falconer Museum, Forres.

Coach drop-point at Grant Park

Last visitor admitted at 3.45pm

Falconer Museum

Tolbooth Street, FORRES

Local History, people, and photographs.

See the horns of the Auroch, the ancient cattle of the Highlands.

Induction loop, sound commentaries

Wheelchair access

Coach drop-point in Tolbooth Street

The museum will close to visitors in August 2006 to allow a programme of refurbishment to take place and will re-open early in 2007. Please contact us for details of availability and opening times.

The Peter Anson Collection

Access is available on request to the unique collection of Peter Anson's maritime paintings and drawings. You will also find more information about Peter Anson on our website at www.moray.gov.uk

